

Testimonials

"Monday nights have become my favorite night."

—Senior at Needham High School

"I always feel safe being myself at WAGLY meetings."

—Junior at Wellesley High School

"WAGLY has introduced me to so many great people, and has become the best part of my week."

—Sophomore at Natick High School

"At WAGLY I can hang out with other GLBTQ kids and know they will accept and understand me."

—Junior at Framingham High School

"WAGLY is a welcoming place where I feel safe and accepted amongst peers and adults alike. I've found it to be a great way to network with students from local GSAs, meet new people, and just kick back with friends."

—Senior at Lincoln-Sudbury High School

Want to help?

Contact us if you wish to help: as a volunteer to provide your expertise to our youth or organization, to be a supporting faith community, or to be a sponsor. Donations to WAGLY are tax-exempt to the extent permitted by law, and are administered through the Foundation for MetroWest. Go to: www.wagly.org for more information.

*I live for Monday
nights!*

Want to know more?

info@WAGLY.org
www.WAGLY.org
www.facebook.com/WAGLY
www.twitter.com/WAGLY\_Info

WAGLY

West Suburban Alliance of Gay, Lesbian,
Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer Youth

About WAGLY

Peer led with adult guidance, WAGLY believes:

- that all people have a right to respect and dignity,
- that all people have the right to be themselves,
- that positive adult role models are an essential influence for youth,
- and that youth can be leaders in an effort to create a community that is free from harassment.

About UMBRELLA

definition: inclusive, comprehensive, encircling, infinite...

UMBRELLA is the WAGLY group that meets the third Thursday of every month specifically for transgender and gender-variant youth. It is a peer-led, supportive, social and educational group facilitated by trans adults. We meet in the loft at the Unitarian Universalist Society of Wellesley Hills.

Is this the place you have been looking for?

Mission Statement

The mission of the West Suburban Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Questioning Youth (WAGLY) is to support the social, emotional, and physical well-being of GLBTQ high school youth and allies in the MetroWest Boston area by creating and sustaining social and educational programs through peer leadership and adult guidance.

Meetings

Where: Unitarian Universalist Society of Wellesley Hills
309 Washington Street
Wellesley Hills, MA 02481

When: WAGLY: Every non-holiday Monday,
7 PM to 8:30 PM

Umbrella: Every third Thursday,
7 PM to 8:30 PM

Events

A lot happens at WAGLY! Discussions, barbeques, movie nights, games, relationship education, dancing, field trips, Youth Pride, and of course, a weekly check-in where youth have the opportunity to share their ideas and receive support from one another and adult advisors. Join us!