A Speaker's Training Workshop

Join us for this training geared to help people tell their personal stories and answer questions about marriage equality.

- provides public speaking training for beginning and advanced public speakers

- learn the issue's, history, and direction, of the marriage rights struggle

- prepares speakers as members of our speakers bureau, or just helps individuals to speak about equal marriage to friends, family, and others in an informed, comfortable manner

Next Training Winter 2005
